'Way to Go!' Entries

2010-2011 Administrative Year (in top-down chronology)

At our annual Installation Banquet held June 23, 2011, we installed our new officers for the 2011-2012 administrative year. At the banquet, Brenda Price was named Exchangite of the Year! Spencer Cantrell, Jr. was named as Exchangite of Action! Rad Delaroderie and Brenda Price were honored with a 'Presidential Honor' award by outgoing President Dan Scoggins! Way to go, everybody!!!

At our 86th Annual Georgia District Convention for 2011 (which our club hosted here in Columbus), Club President Dan Scoggins won Georgia District recognition as the Outstanding Club President, and member Betty Lindsey won similar recognition for the Best History Book (what we call the 'scrapbook'). Way to go, Dan and Betty!!! Check our Facebook page for postings and pictures of this year's convention!

At our May 19, 2011 luncheon, we had a busy succession of programs! Congratulations to Mark Cantrell as recipient of our annual Book of Golden Deeds award for a lifetime of giving to our community in a variety of ways! Congratulations to member Bill Harrington as recipient of our annual Proudly We Hail program of Americanism for his proud displays of our U.S. Flag. And last but not least, congratulations to several deserving middle school students in our annual Milestones of Freedom program. Check out our 'What We Do' page for more information about these community service programs that we host every year!

Our Youth of the Year student, Priyanka Chatterjee from Columbus, was recognized at the Muscogee County School Board meeting on April 16, 2011, where she read her winning essay. Several Exchange Club members were there to represent our Club. Way to go, Priyanka!!!

Our Sunshine Special for Youth program will sponsor 12 kids to attend Camp JOY this year, and will provide 50 T-shirts to kids participating in the annual Box City Summer Art Camp administrated by the Historic Columbus Foundation. Way to go, Dave Smart and his committee, for their 'service to youth' efforts!

Our ACE (Accepting the Challenge of Excellence) student for the 2010/2011 administrative year was Kutunnah M. Mitchell from Spencer High School! (see our Facebook page for pictures). Click here to see more about our Service to Youth projects! Way to go, Kutunnah!!!
